Please join the Maryland Polygraph Association as we host our annual two-day seminar.

The facility has been booked and we are well under way into planning the 2009 Annual Seminar. Planned speakers will address various screening techniques as well as a countermeasures refresher.

Continental breakfast, full buffet lunch and afternoon snacks will be provided by the MPA. As always, our ever popular give-aways and door prizes will be back.

Preliminary Agenda:

Gary Bachtell, Maryland State Police on Applicant Screening formats used by MSP.

Dave Saneman on Applicant Screening formats used in the private sector.

Director Rudacille has a tentative commitment from author Stephen Hunter (the movie Shooter was adapted from one of his books) on how polygraph has been portrayed in the movies, and to talk about some of his fiction and non-fiction books.

* If anyone is interested in making a 50 minute presentation on police applicant or federal screening formats please contact Bud Rudacille (brudacille@verizon.net) or Nate Rettig (nrettig4@yahoo.com).

The cost of the seminar is $175 for MPA members (or those that join at the seminar) and $200 for non-members. Breakfast foods, afternoon snacks and lunch both days will be provided courtesy of the Maryland Polygraph Association
